Slater & Gordon, Unions ACT and Unions NSW invite you to attend an evening of discussion of the proposed new federal legislation to harmonise Occupational Health & Safety laws, and in particular, to discuss third party prosecutions.

This discussion evening has been designed to reflect issues that concern officials and delegates of unions following the release of the new model laws.

We are pleased to welcome the following guests to address the function:

The Hon. Jim Staples
Mark Lennon, Secretary of Unions NSW
Simon Corbell, Attorney General ACT
Geoff Derrick, Secretary FSU NSW & ACT
Mark McCabe, ACT Health Commissioner

The addresses followed by drinks and hors d'oeuvres will provide an excellent opportunity to discuss common issues and the many challenges ahead.

When: 5.30pm – 8.30pm Tuesday 20 October 2009
Venue: Old Parliament House, Kings Hall, Canberra

Important Information

Due to security requirement of the venue it is necessary to have names of all attending. Please RSVP no later than Friday 18 Oct 2009 to Julia Collin on 02 6247 7844 or jcollin@unionsact.org.au.
